STRIKING FARMERS REPULSE DEPUTIES IN ROAD SKIRMISH

Block Attempt to Provide Safe Passage for Caravan of Livestock Trucks Through Picket Lines—Truce in Strike Declared in Other Regions by Holiday Chairman

SIOUX CITY, Iowa, Sept. 7.—A crowd of striking farmers today repulsed 100 sheriff's deputies who tried to provide safe passage through picket lines near here for a caravan of livestock trucks.

As the officers in four large trucks bore down upon the angered farmers, the strikers raised a flag and with shouts of "This is our country," closed in on one of the machines, hurling sticks and stones at the deputies, and turned the trucks around.

FIVE HUNDRED STRONG
The farmers who, as members of the National Farmers' Holiday Association seek increased farm prices by attempting to keep produce from markets, congregated at James, a crossroads village nine miles from here, early today following reports of the truck movement. They numbered about five hundred.

A few hours after the encounter W. C. Daniels, of Searcy, Bluff, chairman of the Woodbury County Farm Holiday Association, declared a truce in the strike except on Highway 15, on which today's clash occurred.

STAY WITH POSTS
On this road Plymouth County pickets refused to abandon their posts despite appeals from their leaders. With roads from Nebraska and South Dakota open to traffic, trucks carrying cattle and hogs entered the markets without incident. Although Sheriff R. E. Rippey's deputies carried rifles, shotguns, baseball bats and clubs, they did not shoot, but put down their weapons when the farmers surrounded their trucks.

It was learned the strikers became embittered over an episode Tuesday, when Sheriff Rippey of Plymouth County and a few deputies escorted several trucks through the lines. One shot was fired then. Rippey said one of his men shot into the air.

INVESTIGATING RUMORS
Tonight Rippey was investigating rumors that the strikers had planned to ignite gasoline on the road if the trucks succeeded in getting through the first picket line and that dynamite had been placed under a bridge between here and James.

ALL OBSTACLES NOW REMOVED

Order-in-Council Signed Approving Plans of Beauharnois Enterprise

OTTAWA, Sept. 7 (CP).—The Beauharnois project has advanced another stage. Today, an order-in-council was signed approving the general plans of the enterprise, which contemplate the development of 500,000 horsepower near Montreal.

From a technical standpoint, all obstacles to the company delivering its initial installment of power to the Ontario Hydro Commission on October 1 are consequently removed. Connecting Lake St. Louis and Lake St. Francis in a fourteen-mile stretch, the canal is to form part of the Greater St. Lawrence Waterways scheme. The plans show it has a width of 3,300 feet "from dyke to dyke," and a depth of twenty-seven feet. On transfer of the title to Canada, the canal will come under the administrative control of Hon. Robert J. Manion, Minister of Railways and Canals.

Within the next two weeks, the Dominion and the Beauharnois Company will execute an agreement for the conveyance of the canal to Canada.

CRIMINALS BUSY ACROSS THE GULF

VANCOUVER, Sept. 7.—Miss Edna Williamson, Arbutus Street, was held up early today by an armed man in the 7400 block, Arbutus Street, and robbed of $5.

The bandit covered her with a revolver and compelled her to hand over her purse. He took its contents, $5, handed it back to her, and ordered, "Beat it."

A prowler stole $150 from the home of N. E. Shore, West Twenty-Sixth. The home of G. Little, Glenholm Street, was ransacked by burglars.

Pickpockets robbed William Moon, Portland, Ore., guest at a Main Street hotel, of $65, a railway ticket to Portland and papers.

CANADIAN POET DEAD

ROCHESTER, N.Y., Sept. 7 (CP).—Author of "Our Country's Call," which was widely published in newspapers and magazines throughout Canada and the United States during the Great War, Herbert Edwin Muir, Canadian-born poet, poet and descendant of the famous naturalist, John Muir, is dead at his home here, aged fifty-five.

Hurricane Keeps Well Off Coast

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7 (AP).—The latest tropical hurricane continued along its northward course tonight, well off the coast, threatening vessels in its path, but not the Mainland.

At 9:30 p.m., Eastern standard time, the centre was reported by the weather bureau approximately 500 miles east of Jacksonville.

FLYER LANDS SAFELY WHEN FUEL FAILS

Flying Officer Gordon Unable to Reach Base With Scientific Records

PREPARES TO MAKE FINAL FLIGHT TODAY

CORMORANT LAKE, Man., Sept. 7 (CP).—Undaunted by his experiences, yesterday, of being forced down without gas 300 miles from his air base, Flying Officer G. A. Gordon tomorrow will make the last flight in the supercharged Fairchild airplane that has been equipped with Dr. Robert Millikan's delicate instruments, until it is termed a flying laboratory.

Yesterday, Gordon was missing for more than twenty hours, while airplanes searched a territory of hundreds of square miles. He reached an altitude of 21,000 feet as part of the investigation into the cosmic ray, and when completing his flight discovered he was out of gasoline.

LANDS ON SANDBAR
He slowly glided down until he came to Oxford House, lonely trading post in Northern Manitoba. He landed on a sandbar, and was delayed until noon today, when he arrived here.

Dr. Millikan, today, reported the flight had been a remarkable success. The daring of the flight, in staying at four miles above the surface of the earth while he completed the recordings, will add a great deal to the success of the mission.

WILL COMPLETE WORK
Tomorrow's flight will definitely finish the American scientist's work in the North Country. He came up here two days ago to discover if the distance from the Magnetic Pole has any bearing on the strength of the cosmic ray. He will announce his results around Christmas of this year.

Opposition Leader Not Commenting

KELOWNA, Sept. 7 (CP).—T. D. Pattullo, leader of the Liberal Opposition in the British Columbia Legislature, will defer any comment he may desire to make on Premier S. F. Tolmie's statement today favoring establishment of a "Union" Government in the province until after the Premier's further statement which he has promised to issue shortly, he informed the Canadian Press tonight.

RAY OF HOPE IN WEAVERS' STRIKE

Cotton Mill Employers Willing to Arbitrate at Meeting With Union Leaders

MANCHESTER, England, Sept. 7.—A ray of hope appeared today when employers expressed a willingness to arbitrate.

During the meeting, lasting half an hour, the cotton spinners and manufacturers' Association central committee drafted its reply to the offer of Sir Henry Betterton, Minister of Labor, to sponsor a meeting with union leaders. The association said it would attend such a meeting, if invited.

A union representative commented that the action was a surprise, and the employers had gone farther toward a settlement of the issues than was expected.

After Thrilling Adventure

THIS picture shows Prince George of England (right) chatting with his co-pilot just after they had landed their plane on the deck of the aircraft carrier H.M.S. Glorious during the recent manoeuvres of the British fleet in the Mediterranean. The royal aviator, with thirty-five other planes, had been unable to alight on the mother ship for over an hour owing to the fog and there was great relief on board when the King's son was known to be safe.

Judicial Body to Probe Shortages In Varsity Funds

Acting Premier Promises Restoration of Missing Money After Thorough Investigation by Commission and Courts—Archbishop Matheson Denies Statements of Purported Interview

WINNIPEG, Sept. 7 (CP).—Investigation by a judicial committee of facts surrounding shortages in University of Manitoba endowment funds was unofficially promised today by Hon. R. A. Hoey, Minister of Education and Acting Premier. Mr. Hoey also stated he would recommend restoration of university funds.

Meeting of the Cabinet will be held immediately on the return of Premier John Bracken from the East and an official statement will then be made. Mr. Bracken is expected some time Thursday.

PROMISES RESTITUTION
"The Government will undoubtedly make restitution of the funds at some time in the future," Mr. Hoey said, "but they cannot, of course, do so until after the matter has been thoroughly threshed out in the courts and by a judicial commission, if, as I understand it, it is the intention of the Government to appoint such a commission to fix the ultimate responsibility for the losses."

John A. Macbray, K.C., former barrister, the university, charged with theft of more than $47,000 of university trust funds, has been seriously ill at his home here for some weeks. His condition was reported somewhat improved today. It is thought likely that when the case is called in provincial police court on Thursday there will be a further adjournment until September 15. If it is at all possible, however.

Hesitate To Offer Comment

VANCOUVER, Sept. 7 (CP).—Three prominent Liberals hesitated today to offer any opinion at the present time concerning Premier Tolmie's pronouncement in favor of a Dominion Government.

Dugald Donaghy, former Liberal M.P., said he had been out of politics three years, but he presumed that if the Premier intended to form a Government along the lines of the National Government in Great Britain, he would approach the leader of the Liberal party, rather than any member of it.

J. W. de B. Parris, K.C., former Liberal Attorney-General, said he would be interested in the Premier's further statement.

Mayor A. Wells Gray, M.P.P., of New Westminster, said he would have to study the Premier's statement, and also the views of his constituents in New Westminster would have to be considered.

Bank Manager Remarks Increase in Confidence

WINNIPEG, Sept. 7.—Wheels of industry are slowly gaining momentum and there has been a remarkable increase in confidence during the past few months in Eastern Canada, S. G. Dobson, assistant general manager of the Royal Bank of Canada, stated in an interview today.

Reverse in Reichstag May Plunge Germany Into General Elections

Refusal to Support Von Papen Ministry's Emergency Measures Monday Expected to Cause Another Balloting—November 6 Set as Tentative Date—Decision Rests With Chancellor

BERLIN, Sept. 7.—The Government prepared today to plunge Germany into the turmoil of another election, the fifth this year, in the event that the Reichstag proved recalcitrant when it meets again next week. The date tentatively selected for the voting is November 6.

Election will be held if the Reichstag is determined to place on its agenda a motion of nonconfidence in the ministry of Chancellor Franz von Papen or a measure designed to cancel the economic programme drawn up by the Chancellor and made effective by emergency decree.

LEFT TO CHANCELLOR
On the day the new Reichstag held its first session—August 30—President von Hindenburg read an undated decree dissolving the Reichstag, and the Chancellor may wield this club whenever he needs it.

The decision to hold another election was based on the Government belief that the von Papen ministry is much stronger with the public now than it was at the time of the last election when it had been in office only a short time.

NEGOTIATIONS CONTINUE
Negotiations looking toward a coalition of Adolf Hitler's National Socialists and the Centre Party were continued today, but Government observers asserted they were not likely to lead to a result that would be satisfactory to President von Hindenburg.

While the Government proceeded with its plans to cope with the Reichstag, public interest was centered in the diplomatic negotiations with France over Germany's demand for equality in armaments with other nations. Publication of the text of Berlin's side memoirs to the Disarmament Conference would withdraw from the World Disarmament Conference unless the arms question was settled to her satisfaction.

STUDIES ITALIAN VIEW
The socialist newspaper Vorwarts expressed some apprehension that Italy, which has supported the German position, might dislike the turn the German effort has taken. While Germany had indicated that it will remain aloof from the disarmament conference if the question remains unsettled, Italy has insisted that the question be settled at Geneva.

The Reichstag is to reconvene Monday, and on its agenda there is only one item—a declaration by the Government.

DOUBLE MURDER
NOW SUSPECTED
Nova Scotia Policeman Hears Shots and Discovers Two Bodies

GLACE BAY, N.S., Sept. 7 (CP).—The shadow of a grisly question mark lay tonight over the town of Williamstown and Joyce Roberts. On the bank of a brook at Table Head last night, Policeman Daniel Brown found them, mortally wounded. In the eighteen-year-old girl's purse was a note:

"We were married May 24, 1932, and have decided to go our separate ways. We love each other. Our only regret is that we were waked and buried together. May we rest in peace. Husband and wife. No gun was used. The girl had written the note. He gave this opinion after comparing the marks of her handwriting with the missive.

MURDER SUSPECTED
Inspector Nicholson's announcement of the discovery of a weakening theory, which grew out of the location of the wounds, that a double murder might have been committed. Late tonight the fact that Roberts, on the way to hospital, said "She was going to shoot me and my sister" was made public. No gun was found. The girl had been shot through the right side of the head, Roberts directly from behind. Investigation disclosed no record of the marriage mentioned in the note.

The fatal shots were heard by Traffic Officer Daniel Brown, and Patrolman David Nolan, investigating an automobile accident at the time. Brown walked into a field, flashed his light as he neared the small brook, and saw the girl lying at his feet. A short distance away Roberts called for aid.

The two were rushed to hospital in Glace Bay. Roberts' statement that "she was going to shoot me and my sister" was the only word spoken by either. The girl died without regaining consciousness and Roberts succumbed shortly after being admitted to the hospital.

LITTLE HOPE FOR MISSING YOUTHS

SARNIA, Ont., Sept. 7.—Three London youths who failed to return from a cruise to witness the Harmsworth speedboat race were virtually given up for lost tonight after a sailboat found driven ashore two miles west of Hillsboro Beach had been identified as the one in which they left Bayfield for Detroit last Friday.

Captain Al Brown, London pilot, who flew over Lake Huron for hours today, even after he spotted the upturned boat, will continue his air quest tomorrow.

The missing trio are Eric Chapman, R. A. Appleby and Douglas Milne.

Broken mast and tattered sail of the vessel having been battered in the gale which swept the lake over the week-end. The small auxiliary engine in the boat was in good order, indicating the craft had been suddenly capsized, catapulting the three youths into the water.

CATTLE TO MOVE EAST
A heavy movement of Western cattle to the Ontario farms this fall is expected. A live cattle market is always the best in Britain in the Spring, and with so great an abundance of feed in Ontario this year plans are being made to buy Western cattle, fatten them during the winter and have them ready for export in the Spring. It is expected that by that time the beef market will be in better shape in Britain.

TWO MEN ROBBED BANK
BOWBELLS, N.D., Sept. 7 (AP).—Two men robbed the First National Bank of between $2,000 and $3,000 late today and fled agonizingly into Manitoba.

EXPERT PASSES ON EQUIPMENT

Charles Pettit Joins Movie Company—Gives Advice in Acoustic Lines

Charles Pettit, who has been sound engineer for the Northern Electric Company, has been identified with the Commonwealth Productions, Ltd., of this city, which is engaged in the preparation for the production of motion pictures here. Mr. Pettit has arrived in the city and is staying at the Dominion Hotel. Yesterday he visited the Exhibition buildings, which are to be utilized for the initial picture production.

For the next few days, as sound engineer for the Commonwealth Productions, he will be busy investigating just what has to be done with the buildings there to convert them to the uses for which they are now to be employed.

He has come here under arrangement with Kenneth J. Bishop, the president of the local production company, after having been identified himself with the company.

ARRANGING FOR CASE
Mr. Pettit says that Mr. Bishop is proceeding to Hollywood for the purpose of carrying into execution his engagements for the artistry who are to take part in the first picture. In the opinion of Mr. Pettit, inside of about five weeks or a little more they should be ready here to enter upon the work of producing the first picture.

After consultation with Mr. Bishop, Mr. Pettit says the Radio Corporation of America equipment, one of the two standard ones used on the continent, is to be adapted for use here. The providing of the acoustic features to convert the buildings at the Exhibition grounds into the uses for which the Commonwealth Productions Company want, is to be placed in the hands of the Sidney Roofing Company. He himself is now engaged in preparing the exact specifications relative to this, and from these the Sidney Roofing Company will prepare their equipment.

IS WELL QUALIFIED
The work in hand is in line with what Mr. Pettit has been engaged for a long time, for the company with which he was identified he had to provide equipment for moving picture houses.

For a number of years Mr. Pettit has been engaged in research work in this particular line of sound conservation and acoustics. He will from now on have an active part in the carrying out of execution of the picture production in this city under Mr. Bishop. Mr. Pettit is exceedingly sanguine with regard to the prospects of producing pictures in Victoria.

NO OFFER MADE
Contrary to some reports, no offer of Cabinet rank has yet been made to anyone, the Premier intimated, and no resignations requested from the present holders of ministerial portfolios. His talk with Mr. Bowser, the Premier explained, was on the ground that he had already sought the advice of many former leaders in the province, and appreciated the ripe experience of the former Conservative chief.

Cabinet reorganization, reduction in seats in the Provincial Legislature and the question of a Union Government were discussed at the meeting. Mr. Bowser giving his views on these points at the request of the Premier, as many others have done in the course of the last few weeks.

The question of actual Cabinet appointments has not yet been decided, the Premier intimated.

WILL OPPOSE APPLICATION
Bankruptcy proceedings instituted last week by the university heads against Macphay and P. J. Sharpe, sole members of the investment firm which had charge of University of Manitoba and Church of England endowment funds, come before Justice D. Macdonald for further argument September 15. It is understood Mr. Sharpe will oppose the university application that he be declared a bankrupt.

The inquiry in connection with the university moneys will have no bearing on the similar position of the Anglican Church. This will be dealt with by church authorities next week. Rev. Canon S. Gould, Toronto, general secretary of the Missionary Society of the Church of England in Canada, held a conference today with His Grace Archbishop I. O. Stringer, of the Diocese of Rupert's Land. He will also spend some time in the West.

Sphinxes of Politics Bother Parties

ONE eminent Republican and one eminent Democrat continue to sit on the sidelines, instead of making party speeches, much to the distress of the chieftains of each party. Calvin Coolidge, former President, continues to farm—and mayhap some counsel on insurance. And Alfred E. Smith, former Governor and Democratic standard bearer four years ago, is unusually busy editing a magazine and managing the tallest building in the world. Men friendly to Mr. Coolidge have been made party chairman and secretary to President Hoover. Men friendly to Mr. Smith have come out enthusiastically for Governor Roosevelt. But the riddle of the sphinx remains a riddle.

REPUDIATES INTERVIEW
WINNIPEG, Sept. 7 (CP).—Denial that he had made statements credited to him in a purported interview in connection with loss of Anglican Church endowment funds was made by Archbishop Matheson in a letter to the press today.

Startling shortages have been discovered by an audit of church funds which were in the care of the chancellor, John A. Macphay, K.C., who is at present out on bail charged with the theft of more than $47,000 of University of Manitoba trust funds.

The Archbishop said he had not given any interview when he was approached by a young man, "I remarked that I was not at all well," the letter continued, "and, in reply to a question from him, I admitted that personally I had lost quite heavily in the disaster, but I added made to it."

ERRONEOUS REFERENCES
"References in your article to an item of $9,000 and also to the purchase of my present house and the issue of the title to it, etc., are utterly erroneous."

"I may also add that I never made any mention of the serious effect on the church in the whole of Canada," or to the clergy superannuation fund and the widows and orphans' fund."

FILM STAR TOO ILL TO APPEAR AT PROBE ON HUSBAND'S DEATH
Friends of the producer and writer, whose body was found in his canyon home on Monday with two pistols nearby, after he had refused to join his bride of two months in a dinner on Sunday night at her mother's home, had consistently attributed his apparent suicide to an unexplained melancholia, describing him as a "student" of suicide in the philosophical sense.

UNABLE TO EXPLAIN
Miss Harlow told detectives yesterday she was unable to give any reason why he should take his life. Rumors that a note other than the one already made public had been found near Bern's body were discredited by police today. In the note which police have referred to as a "frightful wrong I have done you" (Miss Harlow) and said "This is the only way to make good."

Protest Against Whale Oil Duty
WASHINGTON, Sept. 7 (AP).—The United States Government, in a brief filed with the Supreme Court today, contended merchandise manufactured on the high seas on a foreign vessel and imported into this country is subject to the American tariff.

The Proctor & Gamble Manufacturing Company imported whale oil recovered on the high seas by a Norwegian vessel. The firm protested against the duty, insisting the vessel had touched at no foreign port after taking the whales and that the oil was not imported from any "foreign country."

Gasoline Flood In Railway Yard
BRANTFORD, Ont., Sept. 7 (CP).—Ten thousand gallons of gasoline were flowing through the Canadian National Railway yards here today after a yard engine struck a tank car and stove in one end. The engine also was damaged. Railway employees dared risk of fire and explosion to remove the tank car and the locomotive. Red hot ashes from the locomotive fell perilously close to the spilled gasoline, but no fire resulted.

Two Killed by Blast in Hotel
PORTLAND, Sept. 7.—Preliminary firing of some high-powered explosives, probably dynamite, police believe, caused the blast which cost the lives of two young men and wrecked the fifth floor of the new Willard Hotel here last night.

The two dead men were positively identified today as Forrest Edward Wright, twenty-three, and Major Gilbert McCune, twenty-three, both of Portland. Police detectives, after an all-day investigation, said they were convinced the two were victims of an accident. They said the explosion had no connection with recent bombings here.

Frederic W. Roberts, fire chief, said he found evidence that the explosion was caused by dynamite.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—J. Edgar Hoover, chief of the Justice Department's Bureau of Investigation, said today a Federal inquiry had disclosed no connection between the kidnapping of Charles August Lindbergh, Jr., and Garrett Schenck, Hopeville, N.J., fish peddler.

Schenck claimed he was held a prisoner in a mountain cabin near Johnson, Pa., for seventy-six days by a private investigator in the Lindbergh case.

High School Attendance Shows Gains
High school attendance in Saanich showed an increase this year over the mark made during September, 1931, according to a report submitted by Inspector J. M. Patterson at a meeting of the Saanich School Board last night.

The total registration at the three schools this month to date is 430, as compared with 405, of last year. The figures for each school, with the 1932 figures given first, are: Mount View, 265, 286; Mount Douglas, 106, 85; Mount Newton, 59, 54.

BRITAIN LEADS WORLD IN AIR

Disparity Between Services Striking—American Near-est, but Far Behind

LONDON (BUP).—Conclusive evidence of the performance lead held by British military and naval fighting aircraft over those employed in foreign air services is provided by comparison of the speed and rate of climb of standard Royal Air Force aeroplanes with those attained by machines allotted similar duties in the United States Army and Naval Air Corps. Even when allowance is made for the differing requirements of the British and American services the disparity is striking. And the United States aerial forces are acknowledged to approach more nearly to British standards of performance than those of any other nation, excepting only certain foreign services equipped largely with British material.

MALARIA LOSING ITS OLD MENAGE

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—Studies by public health service physicians of the effect of two synthetic compounds, show the way may have been paved for the elimination of malaria as a major disease problem.

One of the drugs is plasmochin. Experiments by health service scientists and others have proved conclusively, they say, that its use prevents the transmission of malignant malaria.

It apparently, also, is an extremely valuable preventive agent, the experts claiming that treatment with plasmochin before the bite of the malarial mosquito will ward off the disease.

The other compound is atabrin. Its sponsors assert it clears up malignant attacks of malaria, which, for one reason or another, fails to affect, thus solving a number of cases which have baffled physicians in the past.

Repudiates Interview
WINNIPEG, Sept. 7 (CP).—Denial that he had made statements credited to him in a purported interview in connection with loss of Anglican Church endowment funds was made by Archbishop Matheson in a letter to the press today.

Startling shortages have been discovered by an audit of church funds which were in the care of the chancellor, John A. Macphay, K.C., who is at present out on bail charged with the theft of more than $47,000 of University of Manitoba trust funds.

The Archbishop said he had not given any interview when he was approached by a young man, "I remarked that I was not at all well," the letter continued, "and, in reply to a question from him, I admitted that personally I had lost quite heavily in the disaster, but I added made to it."

Erroneous References
"References in your article to an item of $9,000 and also to the purchase of my present house and the issue of the title to it, etc., are utterly erroneous."

"I may also add that I never made any mention of the serious effect on the church in the whole of Canada," or to the clergy superannuation fund and the widows and orphans' fund."

Protest Against Whale Oil Duty
WASHINGTON, Sept. 7 (AP).—The United States Government, in a brief filed with the Supreme Court today, contended merchandise manufactured on the high seas on a foreign vessel and imported into this country is subject to the American tariff.

The Proctor & Gamble Manufacturing Company imported whale oil recovered on the high seas by a Norwegian vessel. The firm protested against the duty, insisting the vessel had touched at no foreign port after taking the whales and that the oil was not imported from any "foreign country."

Gasoline Flood in Railway Yard
BRANTFORD, Ont., Sept. 7 (CP).—Ten thousand gallons of gasoline were flowing through the Canadian National Railway yards here today after a yard engine struck a tank car and stove in one end. The engine also was damaged. Railway employees dared risk of fire and explosion to remove the tank car and the locomotive. Red hot ashes from the locomotive fell perilously close to the spilled gasoline, but no fire resulted.

Two Killed by Blast in Hotel
PORTLAND, Sept. 7.—Preliminary firing of some high-powered explosives, probably dynamite, police believe, caused the blast which cost the lives of two young men and wrecked the fifth floor of the new Willard Hotel here last night.

The two dead men were positively identified today as Forrest Edward Wright, twenty-three, and Major Gilbert McCune, twenty-three, both of Portland. Police detectives, after an all-day investigation, said they were convinced the two were victims of an accident. They said the explosion had no connection with recent bombings here.

SITUATION IS SERIOUS

Continued Depression Makes Conditions Bad for British Shipping

A summary of the accounts of British shipping companies which have been issued during the past six months, shows a disturbing state of affairs. So far as the liner companies are concerned, the position shown would be much worse if the accounts of the companies in the Royal Mail group could be included. Still, the results of seventeen liner companies' accounts analyzed by "Fairplay" which have shown a paid-up capital of $29,382,999, and reserves of $12,944,386, or a total of $42,327,385 belonging to the shareholders, paid dividends of $3,310, representing a return of only 1.84 per cent, which is the lowest on record. Even in the slump years before the war, the return to shareholders was very much more satisfactory.

For instance, while the figures show a dividend of 2.66 per cent on the capital for the last year, for 1928, which was the previous low record, the dividend averaged 4.10 per cent on the capital, but in that year adequate provision had been made for depreciation, while it is to be doubted whether the liner companies under review have all written down the vessels owned to anything like their present value.

The fact that the P. & O. Company has not paid an interim dividend on the deferred stock indicates the position much more clearly than anything else could.

CARGO BOATS
As regards the cargo-boat companies with a paid-up capital of $8,895,244 and reserves totaling $4,351,530, or together $13,246,774, paid dividends representing 1.30 per cent on the investment.

In 1928, with practically no reserves, the dividend represented 1.89 per cent on the capital. Where dividends have been paid, in most, if not all cases, they have been provided out of interest on investments outside shipping.

Had the companies, as a whole, provided for depreciation at the normal rate of 5 per cent on cost, there would have been a debit balance. The fall in the value of steamers in the past twelve months indicates that many cargo-boat companies are insolvent if their vessels had to be sold. For instance, one of the companies listed, based on a basis, not only lost the whole of its capital, but the mortgages are not covered, and this applies to many of the British cargo-boat companies today.

Political Visitor Wants Britain to Adopt Protection

Edward Hutton, of London, son of the late Sir Edward Hutton, who owned The Evening Standard and other publications in England, is a guest at the Empress Hotel. He is making a world tour, studying conditions that prevail especially in the Dominions. The visitor is shaping his life for a political career, and has already been a Conservative candidate in two election contests. Mr. Hutton is a believer in protection and wishes to see substantial tariffs imposed. Free trade, in his opinion, has not been a success, and he would like to see the alternative tried in a real manner.

Presbyterian Body Will Open Sessions in Victoria on Wednesday, Oct. 12

The Presbytery of Victoria concluded its sessions in St. Andrew's Church yesterday afternoon. Among the final matters to be considered was that of the preparations for the coming meeting of the Synod of British Columbia, which is to open in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church on Wednesday, October 12. The synod will extend over several days and will be privileged to have present at the gathering the moderator of the Presbytery of the Church in Canada, Rev. Robert Johnston, D.D., of Knox Church, Ottawa.

During the day reports from the proceedings of the General Assembly were submitted by its commissioners, Rev. H. P. S. Luttrell, Rev. T. H. McAllister, Dr. W. M. ASSIGNED TO NANAIMO
Rev. W. T. Beattie, of Nanaimo, was given standing as a minister of the Presbytery of the Church in Canada and was placed in charge of the church at Nanaimo.

An application by Port Alberni, to the General Board at Toronto, for a grant of $500 towards erection of a church, was given unanimous endorsement.

Dr. M. Campbell, of New Westminster, ministerial convener for missions, gave an address upon the general work of the church, and the companies listed, based on a basis, not only lost the whole of its capital, but the mortgages are not covered, and this applies to many of the British cargo-boat companies today.

SERVICE ON FRIDAY

The funeral of Mrs. Agnes Nyland will take place on Friday morning, proceeding from the family residence to St. Andrew's Cathedral, where the high requiem mass will be sung at 9 o'clock. Interment will be made in the family plot at Ross Bay Cemetery.

GYROS CHOOSE NEW GOVERNOR

Bertram Bowell, of Royal City, New Leader of Northwest District

Bertram Bowell, of New Westminster, was elected governor of the Northwest Gyro district at the annual convention held recently in Yakima. Waldo Skillings, official delegate from the Victoria club, stated yesterday. The 1933 convention city will be determined later. "Oet" Noonan, of Astoria, succeeded Mr. Bowell as Gyro lieutenant-governor and Arthur Mercer, of New Westminster, was appointed secretary-treasurer. One hundred and fifty-six delegates from British Columbia, Washington and Oregon, with their wives and friends attended the party. Among those present were Robert Abell, of Tacoma, past international president, and Charles Anstie, of Vancouver, vice international vice-president. The convention was presided over by James Barr, of Yakima, retiring district governor.

PRINCIPAL BUSINESS

Chief business at the convention included the reducing of district dues by 50 per cent. It was decided that club bulletins be mailed weekly from each club to other organizations of the district and in this way, district members would be informed of the work of their fellow members. The treasurer's report showed the financial reserve of the district treasury to be in excess of $1000.

Mr. Skillings praised the work of the Yakima members in providing entertainment for the visitors. A varied programme of amusement was enjoyed, including a stag luncheon at the Yakima Club, followed by golf and a picnic at Grey Poles, where a $50,000 Roman swimming bath was placed at the disposal of the visitors and a nearby orchard offered refreshment of a varied nature to all. Mr. Skillings will submit a full report of the convention at the Gyro luncheon on Monday.

BEING READY FOR INFANTILE PARALYSIS

Although the fear of diphtheria and its consequences has been removed to a large extent from parents' minds, that dread ailment, infantile paralysis, keeps threatening the lives and limbs of children.

Yet just as diphtheria has been overcome by medical science, so also can parents by careful watching prevent this ailment attacking their children and even if the child does contract the paralysis that so frequently follows may be prevented.

Although it is called infantile paralysis, grown children, even adults, may contract it. Half of all the cases are under five years, four out of five are under ten years, nine out of ten are under fifteen years, nineteen out of twenty are under twenty years.

How can parents be prepared to prevent this ailment, or prevent paralysis attacking the child he attacked?

I have written frequently of the mistake many mothers make in using a clinical thermometer almost daily with their children. If the youngster has the slightest stomach or intestinal upset, the temperature will go up one or two degrees, which is really Nature's way of overcoming this upset.

However, in the late summer or early autumn months, if there is any infantile paralysis within miles of the home, the use of the thermometer would be very wise, because fever—a rise in temperature—is the most important early sign. The temperature should therefore be taken morning and evening.

They should not be allowed to play so hard that they become overtired, and they should have plenty of rest.

Parents should not let them get alarmed over this extra care on their part, as this might take away some of their "fight" or strength.

If the child shows the least sign of listlessness or tiredness he should be put to bed and the doctor called in.

The usual symptoms are headache, no appetite, tiredness, weakness, may have "sick stomach." Sometimes he complains of sore throat. He becomes thirsty, flushed and feverish. Perhaps he is cross, or he may be just anxious and restless. He may be too drowsy and sleepy, though bright when roused up. He can't bend his head on his chest.

Rest is the best treatment. If the doctor is called the first day and the serum is given the child usually recovers and no paralysis follows. Parents should thus be not alarmed, but alert if the disease is in the neighborhood.

SWEDISH SHIP GOES AGROUND

Odenholm Crashes in Dense Fog on Coast of Newfoundland

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., Sept. 7 (CP).—The Swedish steamer Odenholm, bound for Portland, Me., from Norway, with a cargo of pulp, went aground sixty miles off St. John's at last reports.

In dense fog, today, in a spot known to fishermen here as "the graveyard of the Atlantic."

The vessel lay midway between the wrecks of the Florizel, which piled up in 1918, and the Prudence, an old tanker which struck in 1922. The two old hulks were marked by buoys which still protruded above the surface.

Although it was reported a salvage tug was on the way from New York to the Odenholm, old mariners here saw little possibility of refloating the steamer. The forehold cargo was ruined by water that poured in on the bales. The engine room was reported flooded, also, but the captain and crew still were standing by at last reports.

When you're buying meat for Sunday - REMEMBER MONDAY TOO!

The roast you have for Sunday dinner will be tender, juicy and flavourful. And it can be equally appetizing when served cold, or in the form of stew or meat loaf on Monday—if you have a big red bottle of Heinz Tomato Ketchup on the table with it.

The matchless flavour of the finest ripe tomatoes, blended with pure, rich, oriental spices and simmered slowly to the very perfection of taste in the Heinz kitchens, makes every meat dish taste better. A little goes so far that it's a real economy.

GERMANY REDIVIVUS

Germany is leading captivity captive, not so much by her announcement of what she intends in "canceling" the Treaty of Versailles, but in the psychology she has created among the nations who are inclined to believe that such cancellation is inevitable. In other words, Germany bids fair to escape, and to escape literally, from the consequences of having promoted the greatest war in history. Under the terms of settlement, in the matter of reparations and in other ways, she has been playing a game all the time. She borrowed money to pay her reparations and she has not liquidated her loans. She deflated her currency to rectify her internal finances. She promoted her world trade on the basis that this course must be followed if she was to be put in a position to pay reparations, which, in the meantime, she was paying with borrowed money. Now, to all intents and purposes, reparations have been canceled. It is only another small step to bring about cancellation of the provisions of the Treaty of Versailles.

Germany is on her way to a restoration of her old-time prestige in the hegemony of world nations. Whatever the political differences, which seem so accentuated in Germany at the present time, the nation speaks with one voice in the matter of claiming a position of equality with other countries in the League of Nations. Whether von Papen remains in power, or the Government is controlled by the Centrists, the Hugenburg Nationalists, or the Hitlerites, the trend of policy is unmistakable. There is a common cause for which the German people are fighting, which is, in effect, to escape any further penalties imposed because of defeat in the Great War. There is a consolidation of public sentiment in this respect.

Already Germany has repudiated the war guilt clause of the reparations document. She characterizes other nations as equally guilty, if there was guilt at all. She now demands that other nations should either cut down their armaments to a parity with those imposed on her by the Treaty of Versailles, or else that she should be accorded equality in the matter of defensive weapons and security. She demands that barriers, which stand in the way of the export of her goods, should be removed, or else she claims she cannot meet her foreign debt payments. The alternative she offers, in the event of her demands being ignored, is to break away from European councils, including the League of Nations. In effect, Germany has seized upon economic conditions as the vehicle by which she is to recover her pre-war prestige. The astute game being played by Germany and the evidence that she will win constitute an outstanding world issue. The anomaly of it all is that Germany is suffering proportionately less than some other nation as a result of the aftermath of the war.

TOBACCO MARKET EXPANDING

There is one commodity in which Canada is steadily making advances in securing a definite share in Empire markets. That is tobacco. For some years past the imports of unmanufactured tobacco by the United Kingdom from countries of the Empire has been on the increase, and in this increase Canada is sharing more and more. During the seven months ending in July last British importation of tobacco from the United States was $8,361,000 pounds, compared with $7,107,000 pounds two years ago. On the other hand importations from British Empire countries was $1,519,000 pounds for the same period, as compared with $1,306,000 two years ago. In effect, while two years ago the Empire only supplied the United Kingdom with one-fifth of her raw tobacco, this year she is supplying one-third. Indications of how the Empire is building up trade in the directions noted are shown by the following figures. Canada has increased her supply from $3,534,000 pounds in the seven months of 1930 to $7,761,000 in the same period of 1932. Southern Rhodesia's output was increased from $45,000 to $2,656,000 pounds. There is obviously a substantial future for tobacco grown in Canada, which is likely to be enhanced because of the growth of trade all round as an outcome of the late Imperial Conference.

SIR GILBERT PARKER

A picturesque figure has gone from the political and literary world in the death of Sir Gilbert Parker, a Canadian by birth, but one, most of whose career has been laid in Britain. In the literary sphere the most successful works of the novelist were Canadian stories, and all of them illustrate the late author's powerful feeling for dramatic situations. In his younger years Sir Gilbert traveled extensively for the sake of his health. In Australia he was engaged in journalism. He secured material for writings in the South Sea Islands. On his return to Canada he spent some time in the Northwest, when that area furnished many thrilling episodes through the activities of the Mounted Police, and he sojournd for a time among the Metis and Indians, whose methods and customs he studied. From the Northwest he went to New York, and subsequently to England, where he was successful in securing a seat in Parliament.

Sir Gilbert's best literary work was "The Seats of the Mighty," the scene of which is laid in Quebec. At the height of his literary career Sir Gilbert was described as "the new Kipling" and as a second Robert Louis Stevenson. What will be remembered about his works, perhaps more than anything else, was his ability to feel the "real and indescribable aroma of the soil" where his scenes were laid. In this country the most popular of his books has been "The Right of Way," though the most artistic of those in which the scenes are taken from the Dominion was "The Pomp of the Laviettes." In the later years of his literary endeavor Sir Gilbert was dered away from Canada. "The Battle of the Strong" was a story of the Channel Islands and France, written in 1898. In 1902, "Donovan Pasha" illustrated the study he had made of Egyptian events. His latest novel was "The Judgment House," the material for which he took from South Africa. What his novels had a tendency to depict in the scope of territory which they embraced was the vastness of the British Empire. He was perhaps the most successful writer Canada has ever developed.

THE REPUBLICAN PROGRAMME

In many major issues there is a similarity between the Republican and Democratic election platforms in the United States. Different wording is employed but the aims of both political parties show a really remarkable likeness, and it is small wonder if the people are somewhat perplexed as to how to vote, that is, those who are not by instinct or hereditary adherents of one or other of the two parties. So similar are the two programmes that, whatever the verdict may be, the American people might have found a solution either way in their efforts to solve their problems.

The Republicans urge the creation of emergency relief funds for temporary loans to States and favor loans to State and local authorities and private concerns for revenue-producing and self-liquidating projects. They endorse the principle of high wages, but favor the adoption of a shorter working day and week. They recognize and approve collective bargaining. They pledge assistance to co-operative marketing associations and tariff protection against foreign substitutes for American farm produce. They want extension of the authority of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation to make loans on agricultural commodities and to the Federal Farm Board. They support a flexible tariff adequate to protect American industry, agriculture and natural resources and high enough to equalize the cost of production in the United States and abroad.

In foreign affairs the Republicans favor adherence to the World Court. They approve the United States participating in an international conference in case of any non-fulfillment of the provisions of the Kellogg-Brundage Pact. They are in accord with a proportionate reduction of arms by agreement with other nations, and, like the Democrats, they support the maintenance and parity of the United States Navy with any other.

The only real difference between Democratic and Republican policies seems to lie in the tariff. The Democrats favor a competitive tariff for revenue. The Republicans want a flexible tariff. Both are agreed on the necessity of a tariff, and whichever is elected to office it may be doubted if any substantial changes in the tariff would ensue. In the case of the Democrats in power a period of uncertainty is forecast, because the tariff policy of that party is undoubtedly vague and would have to be evolved according to circumstances.

NON OMNIS MORIAR

Not all of me will die, not all of me Pass hence to unrelieved oblivion; Some quintessential spark must needs break free And soar and seek and touch at last the sun. Else were the very breath of life a lie, Which hath thereof, since my first sentient hour, Inactive been a certitude, a star, A motive unto action, and a power. How otherwise could I have poesy Prick me to render things invisible? Half glimpsed through magic phrases, how and why Urge me unrelenting, blind me with a spell, To fetch forth, tho' faint, scarce audible even, The ultimate music of the heart of heaven? —E. B. W. Chappelow, in The Spectator.

THE GAME IS THE THING

British players and athletes organized the Olympic Games and made them into a serious affair. Yet now we have to content with two firsts in the events so far completed. One of the reasons for this, as Lord Burghley points out, is the smallness of the team which we sent to Los Angeles—nineteen men as compared with hundreds representing the United States. This, however, is due to the unavailability of financial crisis and not to any decline in athletic excellence. Another reason is that the British athlete regards games as his recreation rather than his business. His entire energy is not concentrated on perfecting himself in some highly specialized kind of sport. When he is beaten by specialists it is no proof (as some have argued preposterously) that Great Britain is decadent—London Daily Mail.

Note and Comment

By R. B. D.

An honest tale speeds best, being plainly told. —Shakespeare.

In the dim and distant days when more stories were told than written, nearly all stories began with the part of a phrase "once upon a time." About the same time nearly all songs sung began with the invitation "Come all ye." Well, once upon a time there was a boy called Tommy Lad, although his name was not Tommy. Tommy Lad whose name was not Tommy was the infant prodigy of a certain family, although his prodigiousness probably was not recognized outside of the family. So when there was company at the house Tommy Lad always was called upon "to do his stuff." The people of Tommy Lad's days would have been flabbergasted if his talents as an entertainer of company had been summarized in such modern terms, but the people of these latter days will not demand an interpretation of the words. If there was anything repugnant to the soul of Tommy Lad it was a command "to do his stuff." If there was anything that struck terror to the soul of Tommy Lad, it was the prospect of company at the house. For if the company were general Tommy Lad was called upon to sing a song, and if the company happened to be select, Tommy Lad might be called upon to give a recitation—if that "good man the clergyman" happened to be of the company, Tommy Lad was sure to be called upon to recite a psalm.

In those dim and distant days our heart always responded to the heart of Tommy Lad in his tribulations. Even in these latter days we cannot help looking back and sympathizing with Tommy Lad in his distresses, for if there is anything that the human soul recoils from in horror it is in doing things according to order. Nothing that is done well, or if not well, at least satisfactorily, if it is done on command. That may be the reason why the poet Laureate generally falls short of the great expectations which shimmer in the public mind upon his appointment and why the critics so mercilessly dissect his "stuff." And that is the reason why an ordinary newspaper commentator simply hates to be asked to write "pufts," say of tag days, or even of red letter days of any kind, for so much has been written and said about such things that they have become "flat, stale and unprofitable" to the minds of readers and the public generally.

Today we are not "doing our stuff" on command. We are doing it because we have been moved to do it by a visit to the greens of the Beacon Hill Bowling Club and by making notes of the marvellous growth in the popularity of that ancient game since the days when the first club on this island was formed—and languished lamentably and unaccountably for many years after it was formed. Do not be alarmed. We are not going to write a word about the antecedents or records of the game of bowls. We are not going to record with the fact that Drake and his company of ancient mariners were engaged in a game of bowls on the green at Plymouth Hoe when the Spanish Armada was in sight of English shores and finished their game before faring forth on the bounding main to engage a formidable fleet and win a "famous victory." We are merely going to record the fact that not only has the parent bowling club of the island attained new and vigorous life, but the more important fact that it has given new life and vitality to infant clubs not only in the city and suburbs, but on all parts of Vancouver Island.

But the most notable feature of the game of bowls is the fact that the women are not only playing the game in great numbers and with tremendous enthusiasm, but are a source of inspiration to the men who play it. For instance, on Labor Day there was a game played at Beacon Hill, and on a bench facing the green there was a lady sitting who appeared to be interested in the progress of the game, and especially interested in every bowl delivered by a certain player. Afterwards we learned that the woman in the case was the partner in the game of life of the player she was watching with such keenness and delight. That player played like a man inspired, played as he admitted he never had played before, and was the determining factor in his side winning the principal prize of the day. Another instance of the influence, if not the inspiration, of the women: A wife who was not a player had visited the greens and seen the game played. As she watched the play she thought (no doubt as an inspiration) entered her head that her man might be a better man (if possible) if he could be persuaded to become a bowler. It may be of course he was, but the woman wanted to get rid of the poor man for certain periods of the day. Be that as it may, the husband was not enthusiastic about the device at all; but the wily woman had her way, and she accompanied her purpose in her own way. She made the man a present of a set of bowls. The sequel to the story is that when the household telephone rings and the voice at the other end inquires where Mr. B— may be found, the answer is "ring up the bowling green." There is much more that might be told about the fascinations of this ancient pastime, about the whims and the peculiarities and the physical gyrations of bowlers when in action, about incidents on the greens, but for further information on that point we must transfer control to an ancient crony, who on a certain occasion whispered with a sigh of resignation, "Ay, mon, Bob, we have seen the day!"

The Rhyming Optimist

By Aline Michaels

WHERE HAPPINESS DWELLS
Nobody knows where happiness dwells.
Across what meadows, within what gates,
Sometimes for an hour it walks by one's side,
Then veers like the wind or turns like the tide.

When I was a child it was everywhere,
It danced in the sunlight, it sang in the air,
It pulsed through the notes of my mother's song
And the arms of my father, straight and strong.

Nobody knows where happiness dwells,
Or how to snare it by charms or spells.
It can fly like a lark; it can bud like a rose;
But the secret of happiness nobody knows.

This much is true: it will not depart
From the way of a tender and loving heart;
It can live like the wind, it can turn like the tide,
But in souls that have faith it will abide.

CULBERTSON on CONTRACT

By Ely Culbertson

World's Champion Player and Greatest Card Analyst

IMAGINATIVE BIDDING

When four imaginative players are participating in the same game, they may develop a bidding situation that can develop. Each player will generally try to outwit his opponent, and, whether the result obtained be good or bad, it is at least almost certain to be interesting.

The other day I watched four brilliant, though erratic, players play a hand in a contract of five hearts, doubled and redoubled, after one of the opponents had opened with a two-bid and the other had bid the heart suit twice himself.

The hand in itself is of no great interest—I only record it on account of the rather astonishing bidding which took place.

1. West feels that North and South have a game in the hand, and knowing the calibre of his opposition, he does not think that a one spade bid will do anything to prevent North and South from reaching this game.

2. North is actually somewhat contemptuous of this bid, but decides to feel the situation out slowly.

3. East knows that his partner cannot have a two-bid and North an overall with as good a hand as he has. Knowing that his partner is trying to shut out a game, he de-

SOROPTIMIST GROUP MEETS

Mrs. M. E. Crehan, American Federation Head, Addresses Local Branch

Mrs. M. E. Crehan, of Vancouver, president of the American Federation of Soroptimists, addressed the members of the Victoria branch of the organization at their monthly meeting and dinner at the Poppy Club. She told them something about the service work which various branches of the society were doing elsewhere, and also suggested some activities which might be considered, with special emphasis on the international aspect of its activities and what might be done with the younger generation of business and unadjusted women.

The forming of junior auxiliaries was commended. Membership in these auxiliaries would be open to business girls between eighteen and twenty-five years of age, who would be encouraged to study things pertaining to the Government of their own country, and by progression, the Government, history and art of other countries. All this would tend to develop a greater spirit of internationalism, one of the primary objectives of the organization.

Fifteen members were present at the dinner, the Victoria branch president, Miss Alma Russell, being in the chair. Another visitor present was Miss Mitchell, a charter member of the international organization.

An invitation was received from the Soroptimist Club of New Westminster to attend their dinner at the Vancouver Golf and Country Club, to be held at Burnhamthorpe, on Saturday, September 17.

DORSET HORN EWES

Sir,—I claim that Dorset Horn ewes are the best paying sheep on the face of the earth. As a proof of this I recall that my late father of Grange Farm, Wimborne, Dorset, England, always kept these sheep and depended on them to pay the rent of the farm and also the tithes and taxes. For over fifty years he always had fat lambs for the butcher at Christmas time, and the butchers knew they could rely, also, on having such lambs all the year round.

My own experience in Metcoshin as my neighbors know, is that I have been able to sell Dorset Horn sheep to rich men from the United States who have bought land and settled here. The percentage of profit from the Dorsets runs into a large figure.

At the present time I have at Grange Farm some beautiful pedigree ewes and lambs, six of which I sent to the Victoria exhibition. With these I won five prizes, four seconds and one third and over $30 in cash. My regret is that I was not able to go to the exhibition myself, as I am eighty years of age and suffer on account of the heat.

May I add that the crossbred lambs are a favorite of the butchers. You can depend on nearly all twins and as early as you wish.

ALBERT MUNKTON, R.R. 1, Victoria, B.C., September 3, 1932.

A DOG TRAP

Sir,—This morning I was visited by a man from the city pound who told me that he had killed next to my dog would have to be killed next to him he saw him in Beacon Hill Park.

My dog is the faithful companion of my old days and a useful watchdog, and I would be very sorry to rescue him.

6. Knowing that the opponents are doing something very peculiar and showing partner some strength.

7. Merely rescuing back into the best suit.

8. Temporarily giving up control to his partner.

9. East does not think that his first heart bid was enough to fool the opposition. Being that if he passes, North and South will certainly reach four hearts, he rebids the three-card suit with the intention of rescuing back to four spades when doubled.

10. South does not expect the double to stay in, but there is no point in allowing nonvulnerable opponents to play a hand undoubled.

11. Deciding not to wait until partner rescues.

12. Still leaving the decision to partner.

13. South feels that the hand should contain a game somewhere and is unwilling to take a small set.

14. North knows that his partner holds hearts, and consequently East's bid must be a take. Naturally North is also somewhat annoyed at the persistent defensive measures of East and West.

15. East has now succeeded in accomplishing what he attempted—his bidding has really doubled the opponents, as it has led them to believe that they held more than they actually do. This is really the principal benefit which is derived from psychic. East must double to prevent his partner from going to five spades.

16. Thoroughly exasperated by this time and feeling that the hand cannot be down more than one trick.

In the play the spade was opened and declarer could not avoid losing two diamonds and one spade. The two diamonds were not bad, as it was dependent upon the location of the diamond honors. However, the West was very effective in driving North and South too high. Incidentally, four spades doubled can only be defeated two tricks.

FORMER MANAGER OF BANK CHARGED WITH CONSPIRING TO ROB IT

WINDSOR, N.S., Sept. 7.—Sidney A. Rafuse, former manager of the Royal Bank at Louisburg, was committed by Justice G. Wood to stand trial on September 20 on a charge of conspiring to rob the Shubenacadie branch on August 23. Gerald Freckleton, brother-in-law of Rafuse, was killed by police during a gun fight in the bank. The robbery was frustrated by five police officers who hid in the bank and met the invaders as Freckleton herded the staff towards the vault.

STUDENTS VIEW PLANET SATURN

Study Club of Astronomical Society Favored With Good Conditions

Weather favored observation of Saturn and some of the double stars Tuesday evening, and the meeting of the study club of the local branch of the Astronomical Society of Canada was unusually successful. Held as usual at the home of H. Boyd Brydon, 2390 Oak Bay Avenue, there was a good attendance of members to hear Mr. Brydon's address on Saturn. His references to the planet were preceded by an interesting outline of some of the giants in astronomy: Aristarchus, who lived in the third and second centuries before Christ, and even at that early date had arrived at the conclusion that the earth rotated on its axis and revolved around the sun; after him came Ptolemy, who developed the geocentric system; Copernicus, 1473-1543, who developed the heliocentric system; Tycho-Brache, the Scandinavian, who, being of a religious turn of mind, made strong objection to the Copernican theory and, with a view to overthrowing this, made profound observations of the planets, particularly of Mars, turning the results over to Kepler, who produced his three great laws of planetary motions. After him came Newton and his laws of motion and gravitation. The speaker concluded this part of his talk by showing how Kepler had arrived via theory at the same place as Newton had by examination.

DOUBLE STARS STUDIED

The part of the address devoted to the discussion of Saturn was made the more interesting by the observations of the planet through the four-inch telescope. Several double stars were also studied. P. H. Hughes, the president, was in the chair, and announced that at the next and last meeting of the study club next Tuesday, the speaker would be James Duff, and the subject "Meteors." Regular meetings will be resumed on September 22, at Unity Centre Hall, and will be held every third week afterwards through the season. The first speaker will be W. E. Harper, who will talk about the solar eclipse which he went East to view.

Just Roamin' Around

BY TWO ROVERS
The year 1882 has a very large place in the affections of one at least of the joint scribblers of this column. Fifty years ago we had not less than seven domiciles in one year. Perhaps that was what started us to roam around, although we must confess that even before that we had made the acquaintance of three continents, Europe, Asia and Africa. But in 1882 we were at school both in the Isle of Man and at the Godolphin, Hammersmith, and "home" meant four different vicarages in England and a short term of real enjoyment with a beloved uncle in London.

What was happening here in 1882? Not so many of our readers will be able to recall the striking events of that year; but, last Thursday was the first of September, and a day or so after we received a marked copy of The Oregonian from an old chum in Portland, who has been a staunch good friend for the past forty years.

The item he marked, amongst others, which lead to our reminiscing today, follows: "Fifty Years Ago
"From The Oregonian of September 1, 1882
"Theatre Royal building, Victoria, B.C., razed. Built in 1884, the first brick structure there, is the last of the old Hudson's Bay Company's storehouses that formerly stood within the inclosure called 'the fort.' The palisades surrounding the fort were of timber, 18 feet high."

Now we Two Rovers live in a modern and most comfortable building on part of the site of the old Hudson's Bay Fort, where, fifty years ago, the Theatre Royal stood, and there are times when we wish the site was still surrounded by palisades of timber 18 feet high, or higher.

THE THEATRE ROYAL

How many remember Victoria's "first" brick structure, the old Theatre Royal? Fifty years ago is a long time ago. This paper was then The British Colonist, and published daily, excepting Mondays, by D. W. Higgins at The Colonist Building on Government Street, first door north of the Postoffice, or just north of the old Fort where the old Theatre Royal stood.

The last performances there took place in the first week in September, 1882, and were "in every way worthy of its historic record."
"The Hattie Moore Comic Opera Company, lyric artists now playing a brief season here, is probably the best and most complete organization of its kind ever seen in Victoria," says The British Colonist of September 1, 1882, and "consisted of Miss Hattie Moore, soprano; Mr. Harry Gates, tenor; Mr. Rattenbury, a young actor and vocalist of great promise, and also Mr. Tetnar, Mr. Streni, Miss Lefevre and Miss Parker, all excellent in their roles."

The last three operas given by the company, before its return to Portland, and just before the razing of the old theatre, were "Olivette," "The Little Duke" and "Billie Taylor." "His Hon. Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. Cornwall occupied a private box." Tickets were on sale and obtainable from Hibben & Co. who were, even at that early date, going strong.

After the opera company left, the Theatre Royal was leased for three nights by Miller Brothers, assisted by Eugene French and a "good medium," for demonstrations of spiritualism, which "entertained and mystified a large audience."

SAIORS TO BE GUESTS

The Naval Veterans' Club of the Canadian Legion will give a smoker tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock in honor of the men from H.M.S. Delhi. The entertainment will be restricted to members and naval men only.

STATE PETITION IN CIRCULATION

Reports Current Signatures Being Secured to Change Make-Up of Police Board

Seeking a return to the elective system of a police commission instead of an appointive one, a petition is said to have been placed in circulation in Victoria yesterday, but the two police commissioners, relieved of their duties by an amendment to the Municipal Act by the Provincial Legislature last Spring, interested in the reported move.

Mrs. Dorothy North stated yesterday afternoon that a petition, she understood, was being circulated and that Mr. McGavin was in charge of the movement. Andrew McGavin, the other former police commissioner, maintains he has nothing to do with the petition and believes it is being circulated by a group of citizens known as the "Citizens' Committee," appointed at a mass meeting last Spring to protest against the change.

Mr. McGavin intimates he might seek civic honors at the coming civic elections in December, but on this point he was not definite.

BATTALION HAS FIRST PICNIC

Scottish Regiment Entertains 300 at Esquimalt Harbor

The 1st Battalion Canadian Scottish Regiment held such a successful picnic this week for officers, warrant officers, N.C.O.'s and men, and their wives and families and friends, that it has been decided to make the outing an annual event. Held at "Rosebany," Esquimalt Harbor, the outing was patronized by more than 300 persons, who were conveyed from the city by bus and motor car. During the afternoon an excellent sports programme was carried out under the direction of Capt. R. Travis and Lieut. W. Oliver, the feature event being the intra-company tug-of-war, for which a special challenge cup was presented by Colonel Hon. S. L. Howe, honorary colonel of the 1st Battalion. The team from the brass band carried off this coveted trophy, and also in the course of the day entertained the picnickers with spirited musical selections. A pipe band also gave much pleasure.

PARTICIPATE IN SPORTS

A boatload of petty officers from H.M.S. Delhi, by special invitation, joined the gathering and participated in the sports programme, adding much to the excitement of the tug-of-war by entering a husky team in this event.

Transportation and refreshments were both admirably organized, the former being in charge of Lieut. Charles Fraser, and the latter in charge of Lieut. W. Parker and Lieut. L. Henderson, Major George Barton being in general charge of the whole affair.

The climax of a happy day came with the presentation of prizes to the winners in various events, this detail falling to Mrs. Brooke Stephenson after Colonel Brooke Stephenson had made a short speech, in which he referred to the gratifying success of the experiment and expressed the hope that it would become an annual event.

BOARD'S ACTION DRAWS PROTEST

Saanich Parents Object to Suspension of School Bus Service

Strong verbal protest against the action of the Saanich School Board in suspending the free bus service for pupils of the Prospect Lake School was made by a delegation of twenty-two parents at a special meeting of the municipal board last night.

The protest failed to alter the board's decision in suspending the service, but a resolution was passed requesting the council to improve Antrim Road for school children in view of the large representation made and the saving effected by the board in discontinuing the service.

Several speakers were heard on behalf of the delegates, who referred to the danger to the children while walking in heavy traffic, and also the danger to health during inclement weather.

P. Hoole was the chairman and first speaker. He explained that a meeting of the parents had been held on Tuesday, when it was decided to approach the board.

FOUR QUESTIONS
 Mr. Hoole stated he had four questions to present, which, if answered, would help to clarify the matter. They were: What is the reason for the suspension of the service; why were the parents not advised of the action beforehand; why was discrimination shown against the Prospect Lake pupils, and why was there no investigation made at an earlier date?

Chairman Frank V. Hobbs stated the service had been suspended as a move for economy, as it saved the board $125 a month or $1,500 a year. There had been no discrimination shown, he continued, but there was a smaller number of pupils involved at Prospect Lake.

AN OVERSIGHT
 The fact that parents had not been notified was an oversight, the chairman said, in apologizing for it. The present investigation into the matter was merely a check-up of the information on hand.

The chairman explained the action had not been taken much earlier, and was only done after careful consideration. H. Thompson pointed out that the suspension of a bus service maintained a high attendance at the school, many children attending during inclement weather when they would not otherwise be able to. Money invested in the service was well invested, he felt. Children were exposed to sickness while walking to school, between two and three miles to school.

ALL WOULD RIDE
 Trustee Frank H. Partridge pointed out that if transportation was provided for children who have to walk two miles to school, the board would have to furnish buses for all Saanich school pupils attending rural institutions.

At this point two delegates announced they would not allow their children to attend school if they had to walk, while another referred to the suspension as an imposition. "There are a great many ratepayers who claim the furnishing of a bus for pupils is an imposition," said one delegate. "It is an imposition," Chairman Hobbs replied to the latter complaint.

MORE CHILDREN
 Allan Rankin told the board that the population of school children in Westwoodvale district had doubled since ten years ago when the service was first instituted, and felt this was justification for maintaining it.

Several other speakers were heard all urging the board to reconsider its decision, giving substantial reasons for their request. The chairman promised full consideration of the matter.

A SHORT CUT
 During the board meeting which followed, it was pointed out that the municipal council had promised several months ago to have Antrim Road repaired, which would shorten the route for a large number of pupils. In view of the large representation made by the parents, it was felt the council should take action along these lines.

On motion by Trustee William Tomes the board decided to ride by its former decision to discontinue the service. The motion by Trustee W. S. Thorpe to request the council to repair the road, passed unanimously.

"Weren't we lucky... our sweaters didn't shrink or fade the least bit!"

"The salesgirl told us they wouldn't, with Lux. Thank goodness we washed them this way—"

First, measure the sweater—then make lukewarm Lux suds and press them gently through—don't rub the least bit! Rinse in 3 lukewarm waters, pin flat on a board to dry, shaping to the measurements you made at first. This easy way preserves "elasticity"—leaves your sweater soft, perfect-fitting—like new! Ordinary soaps—cakes, powders, chips—often contain harmful alkali which shrinks wool and fades colours, too. Lux has no harmful alkali. Anything safe in water alone is safe in Lux!

For the purpose of raising funds to provide shoes for needy school children, the Saanich Welfare Association will stage a bridge party during October. It was decided at a meeting held in the Tillamook School yesterday. The need for such action was pointed out at the meeting, and the decision to hold the bridge party was unanimous. The date and place have not been decided.

During August, eighty-four families were given assistance by the association, representing 361 persons. The number of families assisted in the various wards were: Ward One, 2; Ward Two, 29; Ward Three, 1; Ward Four, 16; and Ward Seven, 36.

The annual meeting, when the election of officers will take place, was set for Wednesday, October 5. During the afternoon, Mrs. R. Hartley, of the Central Exchange, spoke to the gathering, outlining the work with which the exchange is engaged, and presenting a general resume of its activities.

Canadian Delegate To Speak in West

TORONTO, Sept. 7 (CP).—The first practical step towards disarmament will be taken at the conference to be held in Geneva in January in the opinion of Miss Winnifred Kydd, Montreal, president of the National Council of Women and Canada's only woman delegate to the last disarmament conference. Miss Kydd expressed her belief, in an interview here, when she announced she would leave on October 24 on a speaking tour as president of the Council of Women. Her tour will take her to cities and towns of Western Canada and into sparsely populated places never before visited. She will lecture on disarmament.

Widely varied are the colors, including mediaeval browns, beetroot, Burgundy, Bordeaux and Bagdad green, black, being perhaps the most important of all. While felt is the favorite, crush velvets and wool fabrics take no small part in these opening displays.

PLANS ARE COMPLETED

Arrangements Are Made for Arrival of First Grace Ship in December

With the announcement contained in yesterday morning's issue of The Colonist to the effect that representatives of the Grace Line (Panama Mail Service) had arrived in Victoria for the purpose of deciding on local representation, docking facilities, and making certain necessary arrangements with tour companies and hotels in connection with the service which will be inaugurated in December, it may be of interest to Victorians to hear something of the plans the heads of the company have in mind.

Excursions from California to Victoria are to be a regular feature of the new service, and as the line anticipates a large volume of travelers every two weeks, considerable benefit to stores, hotels and cabs and to Havana and New York.

RESTING IN DEEP WATER

Amur Ran Between Victoria and Skagway in Gold-Rush Days

VANCOUVER, Sept. 7.—Without ceremony, but under the supervision of the harbor master, the last remains of the old coaster St. Amur, ex-Amur, were lowered into nearly 300 feet of salt water on the north arm of Burrard Inlet on Tuesday. The burial of the once well-known vessel was carried out by the Pacific Salvage Co., under orders of the port authority.

For some years the bulk of this vessel has been an eyesore on the beach at Bidwell Bay, much to the displeasure of cottagers there. With her removal, the beach is now clear of all wrecks and wreckage.

The steamer Amur, better known as the Amur, was built at Sunderland in 1890 and was brought to this coast in 1898 to carry passengers to Skagway in the rush of '98. For some years she was operated by Canadian Pacific Railway, one of her masters being the late Captain L. P. Locke.

In 1912 she was bought by Coastwise Steamship & Barge Co., and was used to carry ore from Anyox south until 1924, when she was sold to Captain A. Berquist, of Vancouver, and was used in coastwise trade.

In 1925 she was wrecked and sunk on the Skeena River, being salvaged by Vancouver Dredging & Salvage Co., predecessor to Pacific Salvage Co. here.

In 1927 she was under charter to Frank Waterhouse & Co., of Canada, out of Vancouver on the pliers of the general coastwise cargo service, and shortly afterwards was laid up.

the unloading of cargo, the vessel was to proceed to Maitland ports.

Lifting of a $10,000 fine and confiscation order by customs authorities of Port Angeles, following the granting of clearance papers at Washington, has enabled James Omond, of 423 Quebec Street, to bring his twenty-five-foot power boat Ordway back to Victoria waters. The Ordway was stolen from its mooring at the Royal Victoria Yacht Club in Cadboro Bay on July 28, and several weeks ago turned up at Port Angeles in charge of a youth, who deserted it.

The Ordway was taken from Cadboro Bay during the early hours of the morning and later in the day Port Angeles customs men watched it as it sailed into that port. The boat was not taken immediately to the dock, however, and in investigating the authorities found a youth, who gave his name as Howard Hanson, in charge.

He was granted permission to spend the night aboard, but the following morning he was missing. It was discovered he had not returned to Victoria and officials commenced a search for him in the state of Washington.

According to United States laws and regulations, the craft was seized at Port Angeles, with its owner facing a $10,000 penalty and confiscation. Clearance papers were granted from Washington last Thursday, however, after which authorities at Port Angeles lifted the fine, enabling Mr. Omond to return here over the week-end.

Capac Was Damaged

VANCOUVER, Sept. 7.—Vancouver Merchants' Exchange reported today that St. Capac, of the Grace Line, arrived at Panama on Tuesday, having suffered heavy weather damage. The ship is being held there for survey. She last sailed from Vancouver on July 31 for points on West Coast of South America.

Husband—Put your head out of the window until the train starts, dear, then we'll probably have the carriage to ourselves.

Goldseekers Experience Rough Water in Bering Sea

COROVIA, Alaska, Sept. 7.—The motorship Valencia, under Captain Louis Kralovich, put into port today on account of engine trouble after having been buffeted about for several days in extremely heavy water.

The ship had been in the Bering Sea, where there is a landlocked harbor. Aboard was a party of twenty, composed of an assayer, a mineralogist and miners, who had taken from the newly group of twelve claims forty tons of sacked ore. Samples exhibited here showed considerable gold to the naked eye. Seattle and Anacortes capitalists backed the trip, with Alvo von Alvensleben, trustee of the syndicate, and Charles D. Davis, consulting engineer, in charge of the party.

The ship will return to Seattle after a cruise of 5,000 miles. Mining men aboard said the larger gold veins showed from $10 to $25 a ton, with exceptional values ranging up to several hundred dollars in the smaller veins.

SOSS OF CANADA EVEN UP LOCAL BALL PLAY-OFFS

HOLMAN'S HOME RUN IN SIXTH IS DECIDING FACTOR IN 2 TO 1 WIN

Liner to Deep Right Responsible for Canadians' Close Victory Over Green Mill in Senior League Series—Cann Bests Holden in Mound Duel—Final Game Tonight

MASHING a liner to deep rightfield in the first of the series, the Sons of Canada, who were defeated by the Green Mill in the first game, won the second game tonight in a 2-1 victory over Green Mill in the sixth inning of the Senior Amateur Baseball League play-offs last night at the Royal Athletic Park. The win puts the Canadians on even terms with the Green Mill, each club having three decisions to its credit. This evening at 8:30 o'clock the teams will fight it out in the seventh and final attraction for the flag.

Survivors of the series will meet the Vancouver Asahi, Terminal League champions, tomorrow night at the local park, in the first of a three-game series in the provincial senior "A" play-offs. Secretary Ramsdale announced yesterday that the game against the Mainland Japanese will commence at 5 o'clock. The winners will face New Westminster Fraser Cafe in another three-game series at the Royal City next week.

DECIDES GAME

Holman's terrific drive nearly to the fence was the deciding factor in the Sons' victory, as the cafe squad came back in the next inning and scored their lone run. The Sons' lineup was: Bill Holman, pitcher; Leo Hadden, catcher; Green Mill pitching ace, engaged in a fine mound duel throughout, with the former getting the verdict in the sixth. Holman came through in the sixth, Cann fanned three and gave two walks, while Holden whiffed four and gave the same number of free transportations. Holden held the Sons to four hits, while Green Mill collected six off the offerings of Cann.

Sons threatened in the first when Kim Campbell started off with a single to short. Saville was thrown out at first. Broome, in the second, went all the way to third on the play. Bacon fled to Stuckey and Doherty ended the inning by fanning. Again in the second, Campbell went all the way to third on the play. Bacon fled to Stuckey and Doherty ended the inning by fanning. Again in the second, Campbell went all the way to third on the play. Bacon fled to Stuckey and Doherty ended the inning by fanning.

With two out, Sons got across their first run in the third. Kim Campbell and Saville both fouled out to Bridgewood. Bacon worked Holman for a walk. He stole second and raced home on Doherty's hit to second, which bounced over Love's head and rolled to centrefield. It was a tough break for Green Mill. In the fifth, Green Mill got runners aboard, but Thomas struck out and Dunc was forced at second on Nex's grounder to short.

Hill Holman opened the sixth with what proved to be the deciding blow of the game when he connected with one. The Sons' fast ones sent it through first along the foul line to deep rightfield for all four bases. Hillon fled out to walk. He stole second and raced home on Stuckey's error of his high fly to left. Colin Campbell grounded to Broome, who picked off Carey at second, and then Love doubled Campbell at first.

Failure of their hitters to come through in the pinch cost the Sons runs in the first of the seventh. Cann walked, went to second on a wild pitch and reached third on a wild throw by Nex to Stuckey. Campbell's grounder to third, Campbell went to second on the overthrow. Saville was out at first, Love to Steele. Bacon fouled out to Nex and Doherty fanned.

Green Mill scored their lone run in the last of the canto. Thomas started with a single to centre. Nex forced Thomas at second, then Saville made the play unassisted. Kim Campbell put out Steele unassisted at first, Nex going to second on the play. Love came through with a single to centre, scoring Nex. Love went to second on the throw to the plate in an attempt to get Nex. Colin Campbell threw the next batter out at first to end the game.

BRITISH NET AGES DOWNED IN U.S. MEET

Austin, Perry, Avory and Oliff Eliminated in Championship Tourney

HENRI COCHET SOLE INVADING SURVIVOR

FOREST HILLS, N.Y., Sept. 7 (AP).—Tennis forces from the United Kingdom were eliminated from the United States tennis championships today, leaving seven domestics to fight it out with France's one-man team, Henri Cochet, for the crown held by Ellsworth Vines, Jr.

The wholesale elimination of the British contingent saw the great H. W. (Bunny) Austin how to Cliff Sutter, of New Orleans, intercollegiate champion of the United States, and Frederick Perry lose a bitterly-fought decision to Sidney Wood, Jr., the former Davis cupper, while Edward Avory and John Oliff went out before Wilmer Allison and Frank Shields, respectively.

Wood's victory over Perry, scored against tremendous odds, after he had dropped the first two sets, was the day's thriller. The scores were 3-6, 4-6, 6-0, 6-2, 7-5, with the American playing some of the greatest tennis of his career in the third and fourth sets.

Perry looked like a winner as late as midway of the final set, but was the victim of several close decisions in the last two games.

Cubs Open Last Eastern Trip With 11-4 and 2-0 Setbacks at Boston—Pirates Split Pair With Brooklyn to Gain One Game—Phils Defeat St. Louis Cardinals

NATIONAL LEAGUE
BOSTON, Sept. 7.—The league-leading Cubs today made an auspicious start on their last Eastern trip of the season by dropping a double-header to the Braves, 11 to 4 and 2 to 0. The double defeat lessened Chicago's lead over Pittsburgh, which split two games with Brooklyn. Fat Malone was the victim of a barrage of hits in the first game after he had held the Tribe to one hit in six innings during a pitchers' battle with Fred Frankhouse. Baxter Jordan, recruit Tribal first sacker, had a prominent part in the rally, driving out a double with the bases full. The next four men also hit safely, and Malone was sent to the showers. Burleigh Grimes took up the pitching burden, and later was relieved by Jack May. The Cubs made eleven hits in the opener against nine for the Braves. The second game was a pitchers' battle most of the way between Ben Cantwell and Guy Bush. First game—R. H. E. Chicago 4 11 5 Boston 11 4 2
 Second game—R. H. E. Chicago 0 2 0 Boston 2 0 1

PIRATES SPLIT PAIR
BROOKLYN, Sept. 7.—The Pittsburgh Pirates, starting their final bid for the National League pennant, broke even with the Brooklyn Dodgers today to shave a full game off the lead of the Chicago Cubs who lost two games to the Braves. After extending their winning streak to eleven straight with an 8-to-0 victory in the curtain raiser, the Pirates fell before the southpaw slants of Fred Heilmann in the second game, losing 4-2. The even break left the Pirates trailing the Cubs by five games, with the Dodgers another four games back.

In the first game, the Pirates concentrated their twelve-hit attack in the first inning off Van Mungo, scoring six runs on five hits. Captain Pie Traynor and Tony Piet cracked out three hits each in the second game, but the remainder of the Corsairs found Heilmann's southpaw slants puzzling.

First game— R. H. E. Pittsburgh 6 12 0 Brooklyn 4 2 0
Batteries— Swift and Grace; Mungo and Lopez, Sukerforth.

Second game— R. H. E. Pittsburgh 2 7 1 Brooklyn 4 8 1
Batteries— Harris and Swetonic; Heilmann and Lopez.

Jim Bottomley and Muncuso accounted for four of the St. Louis runs with circuit drives, Bottomley making his with two men on the bases in the first inning. Whitney also had a homer. R. H. E. St. Louis 5 12 1 Philadelphia 6 9 2
Batteries— Dean, Haines and Muncuso; Elliott and V. Davis.

HOMERS WIN GAME
NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—Paced by Joe Moore and Mel Ott, the New York Giants came from behind to defeat the Cincinnati Reds, 7-5, today. Moore led the Giants' attack with five hits in as many trips to the plate, one of them a home run which started a three-run rally in the seventh. Mel Ott connected with his thirty-second homer of the season in the same inning to put the Giants out in front.

The Reds scored four of their runs off Waite Hoyt in the first four innings, but could do little with Luque's offerings during the remainder of the game. Red Lucas went the route for the losers.

BOWLING NOTES
 There are still several games in the various club competitions yet to be played at the Victoria club, and the management asks that these be played as soon as possible, the desire being to have everything completed before the rainy weather starts in, in order to permit of making alterations and improvements to the greens.

While no regular competition was held, there was a large number of the women members of the Victoria club present at the greens in the afternoon of Labor Day, and several exciting games were enjoyed.

W. Mitchell, of Edmonton, who annually spends two months in Victoria, during which he devotes much time to lawn bowling at the Victoria club, left at the week-end for his home. He promised to be back again next summer.

Thirty American firms are conducting business at Harbin, Manchuria.

KING GEORGE REVEALS LOVE BIRD OWNERSHIP
LONDON (UP).—King George has some love birds, he recently revealed himself.

Accompanied by the Queen, he was visiting the Royal Hospital and Home for Incurables, at Putney, when he noticed at the bedside of one of the patients two love birds in a cage.

"I have some love birds," he said. "I am very glad to see the patients are allowed to have such things."

During their visit, the King and Queen went to the top floor of the hospital to shake hands with the oldest patient, Mrs. Elvey, aged ninety-three.

Mrs. Elvey was excited. She shook hands and then said to the King: "It is such a special occasion, perhaps Your Majesty would be kind enough to shake hands again."

Smilingly, the King shook hands.

Canadian Scottish Fighter Decisions Navy Man in Feature Mix of Service Card—Delhi Fighters Win Four Out of Six Events

About 800 fans saw a good boxing card at the Bay Street Armories, last night, when members of the crew of H.M.S. Delhi tangled with local fighters, winning four out of the six bouts in which they took part. The feature bout of the evening was between Sergeant Hocking, of the Canadian Scottish, and Stoker Mason, of H.M.C.S. Vancouver. Hocking took the measure of his opponent in the first two rounds and eased up in the last to win easily on points. Mason was awarded a consolation prize for the best loser. The bout was fast. Only one K.O. occurred when, in the second bout, Able Seaman Evans, of the Delhi, knocked out Ord. Seaman Mutch, of the Skeena, in the third round. All the bouts were well contested, one of the best being the seventh, when Able Seaman McGolderick beat Corporal Osman on points. Both men were tired at the finish, and the decision was close.

CUPS PRESENTED
 After the final contest, cups were awarded to the winners by Admiral

the Hon. R. A. R. Plunkett-Ernie-Drax, C.B., D.S.O., who was an interested spectator. Complete results follow:

THERE'S NO SMOKE WITHOUT FIRE

What scenes this saying conjures up rocking chairs on Summer porches where reputations are sometimes attacked, or at least threatened. Of course, the Summer porch is not the only setting for gossip; but wherever there is a bit of gossip going on we are quite likely to hear those words, "There's no smoke without fire" or "Where there's smoke, there's fire." In other words, where there are suspicious appearances there are doubtless misdeeds, or where there is talk there is something to talk about.

Many of us may not agree with the fairness of that as a premise, and yet the same saying has held its own centuries, coming down to us from its origin in that gold mine of modern speech, the Proverbs, sometimes attacked, or at least threatened. Of course, the Sum-
